

CHURCHILL FORCASTS BRITISH VICTORY

TEUTONS READY FOR AGGRESSIVE

Heavy Fighting Still Continues in Galicia--Italians Landing Troops--Civilians Depart

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 5.—Preparations for a new German assault along the western front are reported to be under way. It is believed that following the fall of Przemyśl the Germans may undertake a serious offensive in France and Belgium. The Germans are reinforcing in North Arras. The allies have been driven from some of the positions they gained recently. Heavy fighting in Galicia continues. The landing of Italians is progressing slowly in southern Tyrol, according to a dispatch, and the Austrian military authorities are removing civilians.

OPIUM TRAFFIC ALLEGED TO HAVE POLICE PROTECTION IN SAN FRANCISCO

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—Revelations of alleged protection of the opium traffic, involving attorneys and employees of the state board of pharmacy, San Francisco policemen and underworld characters, are made in affidavits presented to John Neyland, president of the state board of control. Chief Inspector Sutherland of the pharmacy board obtained the affidavits. Every person named in the charges denied any wrong doing. Sutherland accuses inspectors White, brother of the chief of police, Scott and Carmack of accepting bribes from traffickers in the drug. He charges that four pharmacy board members, Molony, Sutherland, O'Callaghan and Zeh failed to conduct vigorous investigation into his allegations. Inspector White said he would prefer charges of graft against Inspector Sutherland.

MACHINERY ARRIVES FOR MIDWAY MINE

WORK WILL BE RESUMED AS SOON AS THE PLANT IS INSTALLED

A heavy hoist, compressor and other equipment for the Midway Consolidated Mines company arrived today from Franklin, Pa. They will be installed at once at the new shaft of the Midway, where the concrete foundations and all other preliminary work have been completed. As soon as the machinery is in place the property will resume operations on company account. The shaft will be sent to depth to cut two ledges on their dip and do lateral work. The company will also develop the old workings below the 500 level, the workings above that point now being operated by leasers.

OCEAN LINERS TO OPERATE AT A LOSS

SEAMEN'S ACT WORKS HARD-SHIP ON ALL TRANS-PACIFIC COMPANIES

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—Further restrictions of traffic because of impending operation of the seamen's act, effective November 4, are announced by the Pacific Mail Steamship company. Freight engagements from San Francisco are not being made beyond July 31. Passenger bookings are subject to cancellation both here and at oriental ports. The last sailing scheduled for the Mongolia is November 2. She will omit Honolulu. The trans-Pacific vessels of the Pacific Mail are manned almost entirely by Chinese. The act provides that crews must understand the language of the officers. Compliance is ruinous, say the officials.
